About the Residence

Ballet Jörgen Canada has arranged residence for 2010 Summer Ballet Intensive participants at a special group rate with the Victoria College Residence, University of Toronto. The cost of $35 CA per night is based on a Sunday to Sunday occupancy and it includes breakfast. Linen is provided, there are laundry facilities and, depending on residence registration, occupancy may be single or double. Residence must be arranged by Ballet Jörgen Canada and not through Victoria College. For directions and more information, visit www.vicu.utoronto.ca/students/residence

About the Chaperones Program

A reliable adult chaperone hired by Ballet Jörgen Canada will be available for students 18 years of age and under for support and to address any concerns. The chaperone's responsibilities are to:

- Live in residence with students at Victoria College, supervising daily routines and also ensuring that Victoria College's residency rules are enforced.
- Travel with students to and from classes at Ballet Jörgen Canada's Studios.
- Arrange field trips throughout Toronto and accompany students.

Toronto – Live With Culture

A creative culture is the cornerstone of a great city, and Toronto is one of the most multi-cultural cities in the world. It's a city with easy and cheap public transit and brimming with architecture, art, dance, design, festivals, films, music and theatre.

Toronto really does have it all! Whether you love are interested in exploring the Art Gallery of Ontario designed by the world-renowned architect Frank Gehry, or attending the numerous free cultural festivals along Toronto's waterfront, the city is full of vibrant and diverse activities all summer long. Visit www.toronto.ca/visitors for more information.
